Getting Around LVI 2012

From the airport to your hotel...

Ithaca/Tompkins Regional Airport is a small, modern facility. After you arrive and claim your baggage at the carousel, you will have to use local transportation to get to your hotel.

Most Ithaca hotels offer free shuttle service, but please call your hotel to ask about availability, as some of these services stop running at 7pm.

Your other alternative is to call a taxi at 888-321-1149. Taxi trips can be scheduled in advance of your arrival. Most times, there are not taxis just waiting at the airport; you must call to request a ride.

Ithaca taxis are permitted to take more than one passenger per trip, so you may find yourself sharing a ride with a fellow conference participant.

From your hotel to the conference events...

We have arranged free motorcoach service to transport you between your hotel and the Cornell campus; the schedule is included in this packet.

Be aware that the free bus service does not operate on Sunday evening, so if you are not staying at the Holiday Inn, you will have to rely on your hotel shuttle, a taxi, or public bus service to get to the Opening Reception.

After the last session on Monday, we have arranged for bus service to take you from campus back to your hotel and then return you to campus for the Gala Dinner. If you wish to remain on campus between the last conference session and the start of the gala, there will be staff available to escort you from the Law School to Barton Hall. It is a 10-minute walk.

If you are leaving on Tuesday...

You can bring your luggage to the conference site and store it securely in the Student Lounge. Our staff and volunteers will keep it for you until the conference has ended and you are ready to depart. We can also call a taxi for you to bring you to the airport.

Parking

Parking on the Cornell campus is highly restrictive. The closest public parking garage to the Law School and the Schwartz Center is on Dryden Road (see the map). If you wish to park for the Gala, free parking is available after 5 pm in the Hoy Road Parking Garage next to the football stadium.
